What is STRIBILD?

STRIBILD is a prescription medicine used to treat HIV-1 in adults who have never taken HIV-1 medicines before. It combines 4 medicines into 1 pill to be taken once a day with food. STRIBILD is a complete single-tablet regimen and should not be used with other HIV-1 medicines.

STRIBILD does not cure HIV-1 infection or AIDS. To control HIV-1 infection and decrease HIV-related illnesses you must keep taking STRIBILD. Ask your healthcare provider if you have questions about how to reduce the risk of passing HIV-1 to others. Always practice safer sex and use condoms to lower the chance of sexual contact with body fluids. Never reuse or share needles or other items that have body fluids on them.

IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION

What is the most important information I should know about STRIBILD?

STRIBILD can cause serious side effects:

- Build-up of an acid in your blood (lactic acidosis), which is a serious medical emergency. Symptoms of lactic acidosis include feeling very weak or tired, unusual (not normal) muscle pain, trouble breathing, stomach pain with nausea or vomiting, feeling cold especially in your arms and legs, feeling dizzy or lightheaded, and/or a fast or irregular heartbeat.
- Serious liver problems. The liver may become large (hepatomegaly) and fatty (steatosis). Symptoms of liver problems include your skin or the white part of your eyes turns yellow (jaundice), dark "tea-colored" urine, light-colored bowel movements (stools), loss of appetite for several days or longer, nausea, and/or stomach pain.
- You may be more likely to get lactic acidosis or serious liver problems if you are female, very overweight (obese), or have been taking STRIBILD for a long time. In some cases, these serious conditions have led to death. Call your healthcare provider right away if you have any symptoms of these conditions.

- Worsening of hepatitis B (HBV) infection. If you also have HBV and stop taking STRIBILD, your hepatitis may suddenly get worse. Do not stop taking STRIBILD without first talking to your healthcare provider, as they will need to monitor your health. STRIBILD is not approved for the treatment of HBV.

Who should not take STRIBILD?

Do not take STRIBILD if you:

- Take a medicine that contains: alfuzosin, dihydroergotamine, ergotamine, methylergonovine, cisapride, lovastatin, simvastatin, pimozone, sildenafil when used for lung problems (Revatio[®]), triazolam, oral midazolam, rifampin or the herb St. John's wort.
- For a list of brand names for these medicines, please see the Brief Summary on the following pages.
- Take any other medicines to treat HIV-1 infection, or the medicine adelovir (Hepsera[®]).

What are the other possible side effects of STRIBILD?

Serious side effects of STRIBILD may also include:

- New or worse kidney problems, including kidney failure. Your healthcare provider should do regular blood and urine tests to check your kidneys before and during treatment with STRIBILD. If you develop kidney problems, your healthcare provider may tell you to stop taking STRIBILD.
- Bone problems, including bone pain or bones getting soft or thin, which may lead to fractures. Your healthcare provider may do tests to check your bones.
- Changes in body fat can happen in people taking HIV-1 medicines.
- Changes in your immune system. Your immune system may get stronger and begin to fight infections. Tell your healthcare provider if you have any new symptoms after you start taking STRIBILD.

The most common side effects of STRIBILD include nausea and diarrhea. Tell your healthcare provider if you have any side effects that bother you or don't go away.

What should I tell my healthcare provider before taking STRIBILD?

- All your health problems. Be sure to tell your healthcare provider if you have or had any kidney, bone, or liver problems, including hepatitis virus infection.
 - All the medicines you take, including prescription and nonprescription medicines, vitamins, and herbal supplements. STRIBILD may affect the way other medicines work, and other medicines may affect how STRIBILD works. Keep a list of all your medicines and show it to your healthcare provider and pharmacist. Do not start any new medicines while taking STRIBILD without first talking with your healthcare provider.
 - If you take hormone-based birth control (pills, patches, rings, shots, etc).
 - If you take antacids. Take antacids at least 2 hours before or after you take STRIBILD.
 - If you are pregnant or plan to become pregnant. It is not known if STRIBILD can harm your unborn baby. Tell your healthcare provider if you become pregnant while taking STRIBILD.
 - If you are breastfeeding (nursing) or plan to breastfeed. Do not breastfeed. HIV-1 can be passed to the baby in breast milk. Also, some medicines in STRIBILD can pass into breast milk, and it is not known if this can harm the baby.
- You are encouraged to report negative side effects of prescription drugs to the FDA. Visit www.fda.gov/medwatch, or call 1-800-FDA-1088.

Please see Brief Summary of full Prescribing Information with important warnings on the following pages.

Brief summary of full Prescribing Information.
For more information, please see the full Prescribing
Information, including Patient Information.

What is STRIBILD?

- STRIBILD is a prescription medicine used to treat HIV-1 in adults who have never taken HIV-1 medicines before. STRIBILD is a complete regimen and should not be used with other HIV-1 medicines.
- STRIBILD does not cure HIV-1 or AIDS. You must stay on continuous HIV-1 therapy to control HIV-1 infection and decrease HIV-related illnesses.
- Ask your healthcare provider about how to prevent passing HIV-1 to others. Do not share or reuse needles, injection equipment, or personal items that can have blood or body fluids on them. Do not have sex without protection. Always practice safer sex by using a latex or polyurethane condom to lower the chance of sexual contact with semen, vaginal secretions, or blood.

What is the most important information I should know about STRIBILD?

STRIBILD can cause serious side effects, including:

1. Build-up of lactic acid in your blood (lactic acidosis). Lactic acidosis can happen in some people who take STRIBILD or similar (nucleoside analogs) medicines. Lactic acidosis is a serious medical emergency that can lead to death. Lactic acidosis can be hard to identify early, because the symptoms could seem like symptoms of other health problems. Call your healthcare provider right away if you get any of the following symptoms which could be signs of lactic acidosis:

- feel very weak or tired
- have unusual (not normal) muscle pain
- have trouble breathing
- have stomach pain with nausea or vomiting
- feel cold, especially in your arms and legs

- feel dizzy or lightheaded
- have a fast or irregular heartbeat

2. Severe liver problems. Severe liver problems can happen in people who take STRIBILD. In some cases, these liver problems can lead to death. Your liver may become large (hepatomegaly) and you may develop fat in your liver (steatosis). Call your healthcare provider right away if you get any of the following symptoms of liver problems:

- your skin or the white part of your eyes turns yellow (jaundice)
- dark “tea-colored” urine
- light-colored bowel movements (stools)
- loss of appetite for several days or longer
- nausea
- stomach pain

You may be more likely to get lactic acidosis or severe liver problems if you are female, very overweight (obese), or have been taking STRIBILD for a long time.

3. Worsening of Hepatitis B infection. If you have hepatitis B virus (HBV) infection and take STRIBILD, your HBV may get worse (flare-up) if you stop taking STRIBILD. A “flare-up” is when your HBV infection suddenly returns in a worse way than before.

- Do not run out of STRIBILD. Refill your prescription or talk to your healthcare provider before your STRIBILD is all gone
- Do not stop taking STRIBILD without first talking to your healthcare provider
- If you stop taking STRIBILD, your healthcare provider will need to check your health often and do blood tests regularly for several months to check your HBV infection. Tell your healthcare provider about any new or unusual symptoms you may have after you stop taking STRIBILD

Who should not take STRIBILD?

Do not take STRIBILD if you also take a medicine that contains:

- adefovir (Hepsera®)
- alfuzosin hydrochloride (Uroxatral®)
- cisapride (Propulsid®, Propulsid Quicksolv®)
- ergot-containing medicines, including:

dihydroergotamine mesylate (D.H.E. 45[®], Migranal[®]), ergotamine tartrate (Cafergot[®], Migergot[®], Ergostat[®], Medihaler Ergotamine[®], Wigraine[®], Wigrettes[®]), and methylergonovine maleate (Ergotrate[®], Methergine[®])

- lovastatin (Advicor[®], Altoprev[®], Mevacor[®])
- oral midazolam
- pimozide (Orap[®])
- rifampin (Rifadin[®], Rifamate[®], Rifater[®], Rimactane[®])
- sildenafil (Revatio[®]), when used for treating lung problems
- simvastatin (Simcor[®], Vytorin[®], Zocor[®])
- triazolam (Halcion[®])
- the herb St. John's wort

Do not take STRIBILD if you also take any other HIV-1 medicines, including:

- Other medicines that contain tenofovir (Atripla[®], Complera[®], Viread[®], Truvada[®])
- Other medicines that contain emtricitabine, lamivudine, or ritonavir (Combivir[®], Emtriva[®], Epivir[®] or Epivir-HBV[®], Epzicom[®], Kaletra[®], Norvir[®], Trizivir[®])

STRIBILD is not for use in people who are less than 18 years old.

What are the possible side effects of STRIBILD?

STRIBILD may cause the following serious side effects:

- See "What is the most important information I should know about STRIBILD?"
- New or worse kidney problems, including kidney failure. Your healthcare provider should do blood and urine tests to check your kidneys before you start and while you are taking STRIBILD. Your healthcare provider may tell you to stop taking STRIBILD if you develop new or worse kidney problems.
- Bone problems can happen in some people who take STRIBILD. Bone problems include bone pain, softening or thinning (which may lead to fractures). Your healthcare provider may need to do tests to check your bones.
- Changes in body fat can happen in people who take HIV-1 medicine. These changes may include increased amount of fat in the upper back and neck ("buffalo hump"), breast, and around the middle of your body (trunk). Loss of fat from the legs, arms and face may also happen. The exact cause and long-term health effects of these conditions are not known.

- Changes in your immune system (Immune Reconstitution Syndrome) can happen when you start taking HIV-1 medicines. Your immune system may get stronger and begin to fight infections that have been hidden in your body for a long time. Tell your healthcare provider right away if you start having any new symptoms after starting your HIV-1 medicine.

The most common side effects of STRIBILD include:

- Nausea
- Diarrhea

Tell your healthcare provider if you have any side effect that bothers you or that does not go away.

- These are not all the possible side effects of STRIBILD. For more information, ask your healthcare provider.
- Call your healthcare provider for medical advice about side effects. You may report side effects to FDA at 1-800-FDA-1088.

What should I tell my healthcare provider before taking STRIBILD?

Tell your healthcare provider about all your medical conditions, including:

- If you have or had any kidney, bone, or liver problems, including hepatitis B infection
- If you are pregnant or plan to become pregnant. It is not known if STRIBILD can harm your unborn baby. Tell your healthcare provider if you become pregnant while taking STRIBILD.
 - There is a pregnancy registry for women who take antiviral medicines during pregnancy. The purpose of this registry is to collect information about the health of you and your baby. Talk with your healthcare provider about how you can take part in this registry.
- If you are breastfeeding (nursing) or plan to breastfeed. Do not breastfeed if you take STRIBILD.
 - You should not breastfeed if you have HIV-1 because of the risk of passing HIV-1 to your baby.
 - Two of the medicines in STRIBILD can pass to your baby in your breast milk. It is not known if the other medicines in STRIBILD can pass into your breast milk.

- Talk with your healthcare provider about the best way to feed your baby.

Tell your healthcare provider about all the medicines you take, including prescription and nonprescription medicines, vitamins, and herbal supplements:

- STRIBILD may affect the way other medicines work, and other medicines may affect how STRIBILD works.

- Be sure to tell your healthcare provider if you take any of the following medicines:

- Hormone-based birth control (pills, patches, rings, shots, etc)
- Antacid medicines that contains aluminum, magnesium hydroxide, or calcium carbonate. Take antacids at least 2 hours before or after you take STRIBILD
- Medicines to treat depression, organ transplant rejection, or high blood pressure
- amiodarone (Cordarone[®], Pacerone[®])
- atorvastatin (Lipitor[®], Caduet[®])
- bepridil hydrochloric (Vascor[®], Bepadin[®])
- bosentan (Tracleer[®])
- buspirone
- carbamazepine (Carbatrol[®], Eptol[®], Equetro[®], Tegreto[®])
- clarithromycin (Biaxin[®], Prevpac[®])
- clonazepam (Klonopin[®])
- clorazepate (Gen-xene[®], Tranxene[®])
- colchicine (Colcrys[®])
- medicines that contain dexamethasone
- diazepam (Valium[®])
- digoxin (Lanoxin[®])
- disopyramide (Norpace[®])
- estazolam
- ethosuximide (Zarontin[®])
- flecainide (Tambocor[®])
- flurazepam
- fluticasone (Flovent[®], Flonase[®], Flovent[®] Diskus, Flovent[®] HFA, Veramyst[®])
- itraconazole (Sporanox[®])
- ketoconazole (Nizoral[®])
- lidocaine (Xylocaine[®])
- mexiletine
- oxcarbazepine (Trileptal[®])

- perphenazine
- phenobarbital (Luminal[®])
- phenytoin (Dilantin[®], Phenytek[®])
- propafenone (Rythmol[®])
- quinidine (Neudexta[®])
- rifabutin (Mycobutin[®])
- rifapentine (Priftin[®])
- risperidone (Risperdal[®], Risperdal Consta[®])
- salmeterol (Serevent[®]) or salmeterol when taken in combination with fluticasone (Advair Diskus[®], Advair HFA[®])
- sildenafil (Viagra[®]), tadalafil (Cialis[®]) or vardenafil (Levitra[®], Staxyn[®]), for the treatment of erectile dysfunction (ED). If you get dizzy or faint (low blood pressure), have vision changes or have an erection that last longer than 4 hours, call your healthcare provider or get medical help right away.
- tadalafil (Adcirca[®]), for the treatment of pulmonary arterial hypertension
- telithromycin (Ketek[®])
- thioridazine
- voriconazole (Vfend[®])
- warfarin (Coumadin[®], Jantoven[®])

NORTHERN OVEREXPOSURE

by: Brad Loekle

It's considered America's last frontier. Alaska, that is, not Amanda Bynes mind. And I didn't know what to expect as I boarded the ship that would take me there. To Alaska, that is... not to Amanda Bynes. I'll start by telling you that for almost 3 days we sailed north and saw some of the most beautiful sights I've ever seen. And I've been to 5 continents and over 30 countries. I got to see glaciers and humpback whales, orcas and even grizzly bears fishing for Salmon in a stream. Alaska is absolutely the prettiest place I've been on Earth, from a natural point of view. The problem is there are people there. And not just people, Americans... and not just Americans, Alaskans. And with our first actual port being Alaska's capital of Juneau; I quickly realized that man is nature's least attractive creation.

You learn very quickly that Alaskans are different. Imagine if Twin Peaks was a real place and its inhabitants didn't have to be edited for TV. Yeah, it's a lot like that. For instance, Juneau, although it is the state capital has no roads leading to or from it. It's like the goddamn hotel in "The Shining". You can only reach the town by boat or by plane. Once we were in the town, which by the way, there are more hairs on my ass than there are, streets in this state capital, we were immediately bombarded by "local flavor". The most polite way to describe most of the people of Alaska would be to say that it's like seeing White Trash in its natural habitat. I mean, Honey Boo Boo would be scared of some of these people. Right near the ship there was a local teenager playing guitar for passersby. One could best describe his "look" as "front teeth optional". I noticed him not because of his musical abilities, but rather because 6 inches in front of him stood a homeless man. And making yourself stand out as a homeless man in Juneau, Alaska is a fucking feat! The two men were locked in a blinkless gaze as the guitarist strummed the same two cords over and over and over again, singing only this phrase, "shoe fly, don't bother me... shoo fly, don't bother me, shoo fly don't bother me". Over and over and over again. I couldn't tell if they loved each other or hated each other or were actually in the process of possessing each other. But I watched this go on for over 5 minutes until I was worried that if I didn't stop watching it I'd be dead 7 days later. Like with "The Ring".

Most of the main drag of Juneau is dominated by shops for tourists. It's all the sort of Alaska themed crap you'd expect to find. Though the "Moose Poop Jewelry" was an unexpected surprise. And yes it was real moose shit and no; I don't know why Sarah Palin never sported any of that on the campaign trail. But it was about halfway into town that I saw the most amazing sign. It was a large rustic, wooden sign that had painted onto it, "The Glory Hole". Could I have already found Alaska's one (and assumedly only) gay bar? When I walked in I noticed it was set up a lot more like a cafeteria than a bar. And with good reason because, you see, Juneau's Glory Hole is actually their local soup kitchen and homeless shelter. That's right, this Glory Hole pumps you full of Jesus and Chicken Noodle rather than the kind where a guy named Jesus stuffs your chicken with his noodle. I noticed there was an information table, and since I now had a lot of questions, I headed over.

I immediately wanted to know why they called it "The Glory Hole". The nice, only mildly looking homeless man behind the table said, "You know, A LOT of guys from your ship have come in asking about that. I guess it means something different where you're from". I simply nodded that he was correct and offered no addition definition. He then told me, and here's where it gets fun on both sides of the coin, that "Glory Hole" is actually an old gold mining term. And we gays borrowed it. It's the term used for whichever tunnel you dig that eventually hits the "main vein".... Of gold. I know, just let that one sit in your brain for awhile.

The only thing that made Juneau's Glory Hole an even more magical experience is that they sell T shirts that actually say, "Juneau's Glory Hole"?! I bought six. And the clerk told me that, thanks to our big gay boat coming to town, they'd sold more T shirts in one day than they usually do all year! So you're welcome homeless people! Just remember who loves you when the gay marriage vote comes through Juneau... in about 2073.

ZACHARY MOSES : MAN ABOUT TOWN

My brother is in town, I want to convince him to run away from Utah and join me on my misfit curious little island paradise. One of the best ways to showcase the island is taking people out parasailing. I used Parawest, located at 700 Front Street in the Historic Seaport. They are a small local operation with extremely competitive pricing. They've got a photographer on board who (for a small fee) takes pictures of your adventure, so you can go home and gloat to your friends. The boats are always run by some cute local blonde and bronzed beach boys. I can't say which way they swing, but they work for tips, so they flirt with wild abandon!

Spending an afternoon parasailing works up the appetite, and for some reason I was really jonesing for Mexican food. I'm from out west. I grew up in Utah and as soon as I could escape my Mormon shackles I made a bee-line for Gay San Francisco. Amidst the fog I worked as a landscaper and did my rounds as a stand-up comedian. After living in San Francisco for five years I moved to Hollywood where I tried my hand at the silver screen. Why am I telling you this? Because the one thing that all these places have in common is a high Mexican population, comes delicious, spicy cuisine.

After moving to Key West, my main complaint was the lack of authentic or inventive Mexican cuisine. Then I discovered Bad Boy Burrito located at 1220 1/2 Simonton St. They are without a doubt the best Burrito joint in town... if not the world! Today I skipped the burrito and went for the duck quesadilla. OMG, it is not possible to make a better quesadilla! I recommend asking them to add some seasonal vegetables and get a side of tomatillo salsa. If you're thirsty, the watermelon agua fresca is divine. There are a couple of words of warning: They only take cash, but luckily there is a bank across the street with an ATM. If you are in a hurry, this is not the restaurant for you. They take their time... that's why the food is so good. There isn't much seating, so take it to go, or have it delivered. It's worth it!

This evening we went out for drinks. My brother isn't the least bit gay, but as a fellow stand-up comedian, he has no issues making fun of me as we scout the town for my kind of activities. Tonight I chose Vino's Wine Bar located at 810 Duval. They have a great patio for people watching, and they are across from 801 Bourbon with a great view of the drag queens weirding out the tourists. I don't know if this fun-filled day will convince my brother to move here, but he certainly won't be coaxing me back to Utah!

There is an important vote in Key West on October 1st that will determine the future of tourism in our city.

The Key West Committee for Responsible Tourism is urging everyone to VOTE NO on the referendum to ask for a feasibility study to widen the Key West harbor channel for the following reasons:

- Dredging is illegal in the Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary.
- Approving the feasibility study referendum tells the Army Corps of Engineers that Key West wants to dredge the channel.
- Key West taxes will increase to pay for part of the $35 million cost for dredging.
- Even if we do widen the channel, there is no guarantee that the cruise lines will send their larger ships to Key West.

VOTE NO

Vote to protect the environment and the quality of life in Key West.

VOTE NO
on October 1st.

That Bat Boy wants at least 9 inches.

Kibbles and Bits - Small particles of feces
Gurl, she's so loose she sprinles kibbles and bits everywhere.

Lace Curtains - Foreskin
He's got the cleanest set of lace curtains.

Milk A Cow - Perform oral sex on a large man
She's a chubby chaser. She loves to milk a cow.

Our Lady Of The Vapors - Someone that goes to a bathhouse.
Our lady of the vapors over there is always on his knees in the steam room.

Pecker Tracks - Semen stains
Where has she been and what has she been doing? You can see the pecker tracks through his shorts!

Faith Michael's

Kiss in the Dark

By Keith Hubner

Faith Michael's newest track may share the same title as Prince's 1986 single but that's where the similarities end. "Other than both songs being called 'Kiss', I couldn't compare the two," the Key West local explains. "My 'Kiss' is more like Prince's 'Cream' or 'Do Me Baby' because the moans in the three songs are meant to inspire listeners into a certain state of mind, if you catch my drift."

"Kiss" is Michael's second single release with DJ GeorgiePorgie, the Chicago-based dance music producer who has reached the top five on Billboard's Hot Dance Music chart multiple times with hits like "Let the Music Pump You Up" and "Life Goes On". Last winter, the pair collaborated on "Go Home", a joyful club track about staying out all night on the dance floor.

They met after GeorgiePorgie heard Michael's "Fetish" track, a sex-tacular floor shaker whose hard beats sound similar to those found in "Kiss". Even Michaels agrees. She calls 'Kiss' a modernized 'Fetish'.

What do you love about performing Key West?

The thing I love about performing in Key West is the people! A couple of nights ago, we had spring break kids, Harley Davidson bikers and four nuns all at the same show! Only in Key West, kids, only in Key West.

Does living here help or hurt your recording career?

A little of both. I can't always get to away gigs because the airline tickets are sky high. Some clubs will only offer me a one-way ticket! The up side, though, is I live in Key West.

Is it true you wrote Kiss while you were sleeping?

Yes! The words would not stop running though my mind. After about twenty minutes of it, I got up and wrote them down. The next morning, I called GeorgiePorgie and shared them with him. He loved it right away. It's so sexy, how could he not?

Have you found your voice as an artist?

I think I'm about to find my own voice. I was trying to stay away from sexy, moaning songs like "Fetish" because stations won't play them. But after recording "Kiss", I realize I love the sexy, playful beats.

How has DJ GeorgiePorgie helped you shape your sound?

Georgie always listens to what I'm thinking. Then he molds that into what he knows the clubs and dance fans want.

What do you listen to when you're driving in the car?

Every morning, I listen to the mixes I'm going to perform later in the evening. I do shows four days a week. I'm always learning new tracks to add to the shows.

What is your guilty pleasure?

This summer, I've really jumped onto the Jillian Michaels work out routine. I love it!

What do you do on rainy days?

I live on the ocean so I love to light candles and watch the rain come down. I'll sit in the Florida room or lie in bed for hours, just enjoying the rain.

Where can we see you perform "Kiss" in Key West?

I work at a local nightclub in Key West. Stop by and see the show!

"Kiss" is available on iTunes now. For more information, visit www.faithmichaels.com.

Ask Nana

E-mail your questions to nana@keywestgayrag.com

Dear Nana,

My friend and I both really liked the same guy. We sort of both courted him and decided we'd let fate decide if he wanted either of us. Well, the guy picked me! And he's great and has an amazing body and is nice and passionate and smart. The only problem is, he has the smallest penis I've ever seen. I mean, small. And believe me, I'm not a size queen. I'm totally happy with 6 inches. Even a little less. But this is so small I don't even think he'll be able to top me. And I'm a bottom. I don't want to tell him I don't want to see him because of his dick, but at the same time I don't think I should lead him on if I don't see us being together for a long time. Help!

Well, first off, looks like your friend really dodged a bullet on this one! Well, more like a BB, but I digress. Whoever said good things come in small packages had clearly never been fucked with a toothpick! I've never been a fan of giant penises either. And trust me, all my little gaybies out there, if you want any hope of having some tread left on your tire when you get to be my age, you'll want to stop looking for dicks so big they have a knee in the middle of them. Wearing diapers at 80 is expected. Wearing diapers in your 40's is extreme. Butt (tee hee), onto your problem at hand. Though sex certainly isn't the end all and be all of a relationship, it is always an important factor. And if sex with this man, no matter how sexy or wonderful he is, just doesn't work... well then, that's how the cookie crumbles. There's no reason why you can't be friends with him, but if that's the case I wouldn't talk to him too much about his wedding worm. Just say you're emotionally damaged from the last guy you dated and looking to keep things open and low maintenance right now. You're a gay man, that excuse will work for pretty much your entire life!

Dear Nana,

Is it possible to over douche? I've been douching a lot lately because I'm having sex with this new guy and his dick is pretty big. So to make sure nothing embarrassing happens, I pretty much douche out completely before every time we hang out or if I think we're going to hang out. I don't want to do anything that would be unhealthy for me but I'm also too embarrassed to ask my doctor. Can you help?

Well, first of all, if you and this big dick'd Don Juan aren't exclusive yet, can you please pass his number along to my dick-starved first reader?! No? Okay, well sorry, first reader... I tried! It is possible to douche too much, though it's not like you'll suddenly drop dead from it. There are a few things to be careful of:

First, this is one moment you don't want your cup to runneth over. So, don't fill yourself up like a balloon. You just want to empty out your anus... not flush out your lower intestine. Second, only use water and only use CLEAN water. Your asshole won't know if it's Evian, but if the tap water in your area isn't the best, you don't want to pump your pooper full of it as it's easier for bad stuff to get into your system that way. Doing it before every time you see this guy is probably a bit excessive. So I would just avoid eating a rack of ribs & a pot of coffee on your date and you should be okay. Also, remember, it's butt sex. From time to time a fart of turd is bound to enter the equation. It's not the end of the world. You should both just consider it an "occupational hazard".

*Do you have problems? Of course you do!!
Why not let Nana help you?! Send your questions to:
Nana@keywestgayrag.com.*

Spilling the hottest tea in Key West

Until our phone gets turned off for non payment, we'll be here to listen to the latest dish. We'd never use real names but I'll bet if you ask around, you'll find out who's doing who! If you have some hot gossip, email us at tea@qkeywest.com. We'll keep your name a secret because we know how to keep secrets!

In most parts of the country, you would stalk someone by checking out their Facebook page. Here, you can find a few locals recently listed on the Sherrif's arrest web site!

Last time, we encouraged you to search for an amateur porn video on X-Tube that was filmed in a local men's room. We heard that quite a few people stumbled onto another video starring a local. Appologies to that local (but again, you may want to search for "Key West.")

So there are all kinds of people keeping secrets. Another guesthouse is being sold and a local door person is also holding in a secret. We already know what both secrets are but we don't gossip!

We hear that a few entertainers are looking to renegotiate their contracts this season. We will see who is here when season starts and who isn't!

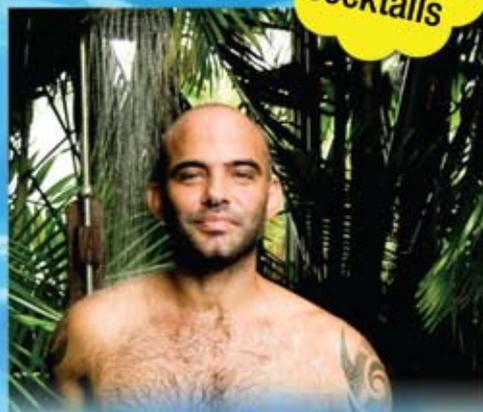

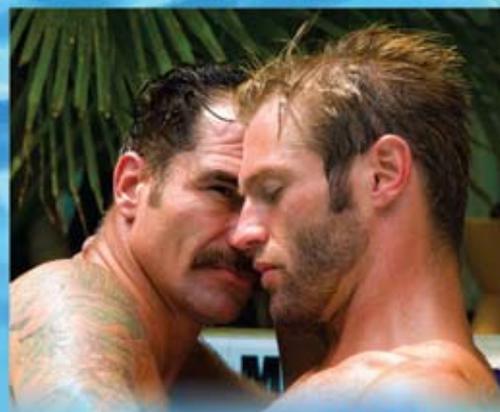

Seems that so many people are getting banned from the local bars for short periods. Did a bad batch come in from Columbia?

Whore-o-Scopes

Aquarius

Jan 20 – Feb 18

Stop cruising the mens room at Home Depot. This month it's Womenfest so the homos won't be hanging out there!

Pisces

Feb 19 – Mar 20

It's time to start getting your your costume together for Fantasy Fest. Dress like someone successful. No one will recognize you.

Aries

Mar 21 – Apr 19

So we heard you were upset that there were no Whore-o-Scopes last month? Get over yourself. The world doesn't revolve around you!

Taurus

Apr 20 – May 20

If you're going to try to drag someone through the dirt, you may want to clean your own laundry first!

Gemini

May 21 – Jun 20

So we understand you are on a diet and you were asking if you can have a cheat day. While a cheat meal isn't necessarily a bad thing, a cheat week is!

Cancer

Jun 21 – Jul 22

Sexually, you are truly the most boring person in Key West. Even your hand falls asleep during masturbation!

Leo

Jul 23 – Aug 22

There's an old saying that says "If you lay down with dogs, you're going to get fleas." You should just give Frontline to all of your tricks as they leave!

Virgo

Aug 23 – Sep 22

So you were finally able to hold a job down for a week, so you thought it was a good idea to ask for a vacation. Good luck with the job hunt!

Libra

Sep 23 – Oct 22

If you spent half the time on your career that you do on Grindr, you'd be the president of the company by now!

Scorpio

Oct 23 – Nov 21

If you really want to have a good first date, you should start with leaving your phone at home. Sending 25 texts during a date shows you have no interest in dating!

Sagittarius

Nov 22 – Dec 21

If your skin was any shinier, people will need to wear sunglasses to talk to you.

Capricorn

Dec 22 – Jan 19

You probably shouldn't post anymore pictures on "Throwback Thursday." What were you thinking with that hairstyle??
