Welcome To Paradise!

It seems like forever since we've been able to get together and celebrate something, ANYTHING!

We are so glad you chose to join us for Pride. We were in the closet too long to be stuck inside for the last year and we're ready to show our PRIDE!

Enjoy!

LEZ
OUT

I It's PRIDE month! The time of year when the rest of the country catches up with Key West. Living here is like constantly being in a pride parade. With that being said, we really ramp it up for Pride. Pride fests all over the country are being cancelled and rescheduled but Key West is ready to go! The CDC just lifted the mask requirement for all vaccinated persons whether inside or out. This is the moment we have all been waiting for! Let the party begin!! Safely, of course.

I have been having most likely the same conversations with my friends that you have regarding whether or not it is really safe and here's what we have come up with; do with it what you will. WE think that the whole idea behind getting the vaccine is exactly this: move about the country like semi-normal. SO.. if one is the recommended time frame away from the last shot so as to be the most effective (per CDC guideline because, you know, science), then it is time to begin life as we knew it. Gatherings. Celebrations. Live music. Friends. Hugs. All of that good stuff. Hasn't the idea always been that if we did get sick after the vaccination that it would be minimal and not life threatening? Everyone I know is ready to give that a try. Pride is a GREAT way to get that started!

Pride has always been about breaking out of oppression and being together and this year will certainly make that the theme! Key West knows how to bring out the color, music and energy to make a party a REAL party. If you're visiting, please know that we are so so glad you're here. There are some really great gay supporting, owned and operated businesses that you have got to check out. Marylin's Restaurant and Pub on Grinnell St has quickly become a favorite of the local gays and lesbians. It's where we like to hang out, meet in groups for happy hour (they have a great one!), lunch, dinner, a drag show, live music and incredibly friendly staff. It's like coming home. Our friend Laurie T is a bartender there ladies, so go sit at the bar and she'll be glad to tell you ALL about town! There aren't many places around town that we lesbians feel well represented but now that we have Marylin's we have a home! Check it out while you're in town.

I hope you are ready to have a blast this year for Key West's Pride! Check out the events on the Key West Business Guild's website. There will be a TON of events. Check out the Key West Lesbians group on Facebook if you'd like to meet up with us or a create a group and get together during Pride (or any time you visit)! NOW, Lez Go Out and CELEBRATE!! Grab your rainbow bikinis, feathers, sparkly masks, fans and make that loud cracking sound when appropriately snapped, short shorts, wives, girlfriends and single friends and celebrate being here, queer and healthy! I can't wait to see you all out there. Happy Pride!!

IMPORTANT FACTS FOR BIKTARVY®

This is only a brief summary of important information about BIKTARVY and does not replace talking to your healthcare provider about your condition and your treatment.

(bik-TAR-vee)

MOST IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BIKTARVY

BIKTARVY may cause serious side effects, including:

▶ Worsening of hepatitis B (HBV) infection. Your healthcare provider will test you for HBV. If you have both HIV-1 and HBV, your HBV may suddenly get worse if you stop taking BIKTARVY. Do not stop taking BIKTARVY without first talking to your healthcare provider, as they will need to check your health regularly for several months, and may give you HBV medicine.

ABOUT BIKTARVY

BIKTARVY is a complete, 1-pill, once-a-day prescription medicine used to treat HIV-1 in adults and children who weigh at least 55 pounds. It can either be used in people who have never taken HIV-1 medicines before, or people who are replacing their current HIV-1 medicines and whose healthcare provider determines they meet certain requirements.

BIKTARVY does not cure HIV-1 or AIDS. HIV-1 is the virus that causes AIDS.

Do NOT take BIKTARVY if you also take a medicine that contains:

- ▶ dofetilide
- ▶ rifampin
- ▶ any other medicines to treat HIV-1

POSSIBLE SIDE EFFECTS OF BIKTARVY

BIKTARVY may cause serious side effects, including:

- ▶ Those in the "Most Important Information About BIKTARVY" section.
- ▶ Changes in your immune system. Your immune system may get stronger and begin to fight infections that may have been hidden in your body. Tell your healthcare provider if you have any new symptoms after you start taking BIKTARVY.

- ▶ Kidney problems, including kidney failure. Your healthcare provider should do blood and urine tests to check your kidneys. If you develop new or worse kidney problems, they may tell you to stop taking BIKTARVY.
- ▶ Too much lactic acid in your blood (lactic acidosis), which is a serious but rare medical emergency that can lead to death. Tell your healthcare provider right away if you get these symptoms: weakness or being more tired than usual, unusual muscle pain, being short of breath or fast breathing, stomach pain with nausea and vomiting, cold or blue hands and feet, feel dizzy or lightheaded, or a fast or abnormal heartbeat.
- ▶ Severe liver problems, which in rare cases can lead to death. Tell your healthcare provider right away if you get these symptoms: skin or the white part of your eyes turns yellow, dark "tea-colored" urine, light-colored stools, loss of appetite for several days or longer, nausea, or stomach-area pain.
- ▶ The most common side effects of BIKTARVY in clinical studies were diarrhea (6%), nausea (6%), and headache (5%).

These are not all the possible side effects of BIKTARVY. Tell your healthcare provider right away if you have any new symptoms while taking BIKTARVY.

You are encouraged to report negative side effects of prescription drugs to the FDA. Visit www.FDA.gov/medwatch or call 1-800-FDA-1088.

Your healthcare provider will need to do tests to monitor your health before and during treatment with BIKTARVY.

BEFORE TAKING BIKTARVY

Tell your healthcare provider if you:

- ▶ Have or have had any kidney or liver problems, including hepatitis infection.
- ▶ Have any other health problems.
- ▶ Are pregnant or plan to become pregnant. It is not known if BIKTARVY can harm your unborn baby. Tell your healthcare provider if you become pregnant while taking BIKTARVY.
- ▶ Are breastfeeding (nursing) or plan to breastfeed. Do not breastfeed. HIV-1 can be passed to the baby in breast milk.

Tell your healthcare provider about all the medicines you take:

- ▶ Keep a list that includes all prescription and over-the-counter medicines, antacids, laxatives, vitamins, and herbal supplements, and show it to your healthcare provider and pharmacist.

- ▶ BIKTARVY and other medicines may affect each other. Ask your healthcare provider and pharmacist about medicines that interact with BIKTARVY, and ask if it is safe to take BIKTARVY with all your other medicines.

HOW TO TAKE BIKTARVY

Take BIKTARVY 1 time each day with or without food.

LGBT Book Reviews by Terri Schlichenmeyer

"LAUNDRY LOVE: FINDING JOY IN A COMMON CHORE"

BY PATRIC RICHARDSON WITH KARIN B. MILLER

c.2021, Flatiron Books | $25.99 | 185 pages

Tomorrow's outfit is on a chair over there.

That's where it's been since you last washed it. What you wore today came from a basket and off a hanger, the shirt needed ironing, there was a tiny stain on the pants but who noticed? and you just bought new socks, so there's that. Time to do the wash? Yeah, but get a load of this: "Laundry Love" by Patric Richardson (with Karin B. Miller).

In one of his earliest memories, Patric Richardson's uncle holds him aloft so that Richardson could watch laundry swimming in the washer. He was almost a baby then, but the fascination was set: at age three, Richardson was "over the moon" when he received a toy washing machine as a birthday gift. He remembers that it was Harvest Gold.

Growing up, Richardson absorbed washday secrets from an extended family of women and he learned the appeal of laundry hung on a line outside. While at the University of Kentucky, he met three professors who taught him about textiles, and employers educated him further. Love of fabric eventually became Richardson's career and laundry is his love-language: "caring for your loved ones' clothes shows them love."

The first thing to know, Richardson states, is that "our clothes are bossy." If something you enjoy wearing says "Dry Clean Only" on the label, lay it on the kitchen counter, grab a pair of scissors, and cut that label off because, "anything can be washed at home."

Here, you'll learn how to save time on wash day. Find out why big-brand-name detergents are unsafe, and see what you need to care for your clothes properly. Learn to iron, eliminate horrible stains, wash woolens and other awkward-to-clean items, and see how to rescue yellowed linens and special-event clothing like a pro.

Remember, says Richardson: "You don't have to do laundry – you get to do laundry."

These days, though, author Patric Richardson doesn't "get to" very often. His husband, he says, does their wash while Richardson runs a clothing store and offers "Laundry Camp" at the Mall of America. But since not everyone can be a happy camper, there's "Laundry Love."

If you're thinking that a book about joyfully washing clothes would be a mighty skinny book, you're right but laundry is only a part of this story here. The rest is biography, and a love-letter to Appalachian and Southern women. In giving props to the women who raised him, Richardson shows how his interest in fabric grew, too; the subject of textiles, which may be perceived as mundane by many, is treated in this light as something precious and accessible.

If you come for the biography, you'll be glad you stayed for the hints as Richardson shows how even the most delicate items can be safely home-cleaned. That fur you love? Done. That stinky-perfumed vintage item you found? Clean. Ahhhhhhhh, so pick up the undies in the corner, use Grandma's linens, shop thrift-stores with impunity. Go ahead, fear-free. Having "Laundry Love" should take a load off your mind.

MY BIG GAY LIFE

Brad Loekle

PRIDE & JOY

I went to my first pride march when I was 16 years old. My friends and I took two trains to get from upstate New York to NYC. We marched with GMHC, got spit at by Westboro Baptist Church people, it rained and everyone started making out with strangers. It was absolutely fagtastic!

And that's what I want for all of us this June. It is our 1st Pride month with the end (or at least management) of this pandemic in sight. And honey, I want to see all you kids out there vaccinated, lubricated, and celebrating the way we used to. I want boys with coral necklaces sucking on ring pops in front of babies in strollers. I want all my dykes on all the bikes that exist in Key West. Harleys, 10-speeds, tricycles... I don't care! I want every color of the rainbow and every gender on the spectrum to come together in one great, cultural tidal wave and flood Duval Street, all while CeCe Penison's Finally is blaring so loud and proud that the assholes of straight men pucker like Audrey II in Little Shop of Horrors. I want dancing. I want prancing. I want vaccinated pig bottoms who feel safe spitting in each other's mouths again.

This has been a rough time, and not our first time, at the pandemic rodeo. For many of us this is our second plague. We have lost so much from both of them, and in very different ways, but we have come through. Dolly Goddamn Parton even helped make one of the vaccines so that she'd have a reason to sing

Light of a Clear Blue Morning for the gays when it is over. And we need to come back from this dark time the way we did during the last dark time. We need to fill all the gay places and spaces around the country, and the world, with so much light that no virus can withstand it. It is time for us to stand up again and be the motherfucking unicorns we've always been! Dust off your circuit party wings and lace up your roller skates and give the breeders at CVS something to tell their friends about when they get home. Because this is our time. We were put in the crucible again and again proved that we can survive any fire so long as we turn it into a Disco Inferno.

I know a lot of us still feel burnt out. I know a lot of us are still processing the losses from this plague and the one before. That's okay. You're going to be okay. And one of the ways you'll start to believe that is by putting on your booty shorts and turning the beat around. They say that happiness can be a choice. And if that's true, it means sadness can be a choice. It was okay to choose sadness during all this. Now choose happiness. I need you, your friends need you, our children and our elders need you... YOU need YOU! Now get out there and show this pandemic, this city, and this world that we're here, we're queer, and we are going to make this OUR YEAR!

Brad Loekle's latest comedy special & album, "Brash Boys Club" is available on Amazon, AppleTV, iTunes, and other platforms. He was a semi-finalist on NBC's "Last Comic Standing". He can be seen every week on TruTV's "World's Dumbest", has written for Joan Rivers on E! "Fashion Police" & tours internationally. His book, "My Big Gay Life" is available on Amazon. Welcome into our One Human Family

As Mayor of Key West, I would like to welcome you into our Community as we celebrate Pride after enduring one of the most challenging years in history. As all of you know, Key West is a shining beacon of diversity as evidenced by my re-election as the first lesbian Mayor in our 198 year history.

Enjoy this week and immerse yourself in our history, architecture, incredible nightly sunsets, fine dining, water sports, diving and eco tourism. Our 2 x 4 island is perfect to bike or walk around and you will be drawn to our iconic Duval Street where nightlife is lively and musicians from around the world will entertain you nightly. Wander down our side streets such as Fleming, Caroline, Southard and Eaton to find intimate wine bars, neighborhood gourmet restaurants and unique shopping.

As you enjoy our little piece of paradise, please remember that we are an environmentally sensitive island so treat it well. We have been able to reopen all of our wonderful venues to you because our island and our residents have adhered to our Covid protective measures for the past year. Please continue to follow CDC guidelines and the City of Key West protective measures to enjoy a healthy, fun-filled week. We're glad you're here!

The HISTORY of Our BUSINESS GUILD

The Key West Business Guild (KWBG) was formed in 1978 to encourage summer tourism and to support Key West's gay community. The KWBG is one of the nation's first LGBTQ destination marketing organizations. From a small original membership, it has grown to include more than 475 enterprises representing virtually every facet of the island's business community.

We are a not-for-profit organization devoted to promoting Key West to LGBTQ+ travelers. We provide comprehensive information about Gay Key West and promote our members to a national and international travel market. This work helps to attract about 250,000 LGBTQ+ travelers here each year, earning Key West the well-deserved (and decades long) reputation as one of the most appealing gay-friendly destinations anywhere in the world!

Our mission at the Key West Business Guild is to first, promote LGBTQ+ travel to Key West through marketing and the promotion of special events: Key West Pride, Tropical Heat, Womenfest, and the Headdress Ball. Secondly, we support LGBTQ+-owned, managed, or friendly businesses. And the Guild works to strengthen the LGBTQ+ community's position within the local community by supporting relevant LGBTQ+ issues.

Today, our Business Guild is proud to rank among the nation's leading gay business associations. Our marketing efforts, supported by the Monroe County Tourism Development Council, incorporate a gay marketing specialist and an award-winning advertising campaign. We also operate the Gay Key West Visitor Center located at 808 Duval. Walk-in to find a warm welcome and an informative introduction to this amazing inclusive island, our events, local businesses, and area attractions. We hope that you have an awesome time here in the island - and come back again soon!

COCQ TALES

Local Bartender Interviews

By Jameson Rabbitt

THE SAILING DIVA OF DUVAL

Her first shift working at a restaurant, the owner threw her behind the wood; she had no idea what was in a vodka soda, she was 18 about to go-on 21 very quick- And that's how Myrica, a local staple bartender in the gayborhood started her career as a bartender; little did she know that this trade was about to take her sailing through the Atlantic from port to port until she found a tiny island in the Caribbean that she has called home for about five years full time.

Myrica currently tends both bars at Bourbon St. Pub and Aqua Night Club across the street, she really gets the full Key West experience from a different perspective which has made her transition from full time ER Nurse and the Imaging dept. specifically CAT-Scans, from cancer screenings to trauma. The bartending gig paid off; she used all her hard-earned dollars from working the bar to pay for school, debt free! Whoever said work cannot be fun obviously has not met Myrica or worked in the Keys before.

She feels that working at Bourbon has been an amazing experience for the past three years that she's worked there and feels very privileged as a cis-straight female to have been embraced into the gay community in Key West. When I asked her about her most shocking experience at Bourbon St. Pub, hands down, Fantasy Fest and the anything-goes parties where she met and wild annual attendee knows as "gang-bang grandma" a-very-nice old lady that most like our readers loves to take all kinds of dick throughout the night. Young, old, gay, straight, she does not discriminate. -I salute you gang-bang-grandma!

Myrica estimates that she's probably poured 2 million vodka sodas in her life, and that's probably low-balling it, since she bartends at two of the most established gay bars on the island. Her most favorite thing about Key West is hands down the Live music scene, her favorite group is The Swayzees a predominant rock-soul music band. She loves to go around and support the local talent around the island. On a night off (which happens rarely) you can find her with a stack of singles tipping her favorite Drag Queens and enjoying her favorite cocktail, Deep Eddy Grapefruit with soda garnished with a lime wedge but as for her favorite shot, Green Tea is her go to.

Myrica's Green Tea:

1.5oz Jameson
1oz peach liquor
Splash of Sour Mix
P.S. if you add Sprite to it, YOU
DON'T KNOW WHAT YOU'RE DOING!

Stop by Bourbon or Aqua and have Myrica (usually covered in glitter and some kind of cat-ear head band) fix your favorite cocktail!!

Tell her Jameson sent you, cheers!!!

Dear Nana,

So, I sent most of the pandemic talking to a really cute guy I'd never met. We met on Instagram and then moved over to the phone. Now that he's fully vaccinated, he's coming to town for a long weekend to relax and also to meet me. I'm super nervous. We've faceted so I know this isn't a catfish situation, but I'm still worried we won't have the same chemistry in person that we've had on the phone. Any tips on how to make this long overdue meeting less awkward?

Well, first if all, I'd say don't over plan or over think things for the first meeting. This isn't a goddamn Nancy Meyers movie. No flowers, not taking him to your favorite romantic spot. Make it low pressure. Meet for lunch not dinner. That sort of thing. But also, the easiest way to get past the awkwardness is to acknowledge it and plow through it. And the easiest way to plow through it is to plow each other. I mean it. If there's some spark there, after all, when you meet... don't wait! You'll see that awkwardness evaporate the second you're both inside one another. It's been a long pandemic. Let's not make it any longer by dragging out the dessert course on that first date. Get to living, queen!

Dear Nana,

My neighbor keeps letting her dog poop in front of my house and not cleaning it up. I've asked her dozens of times, very nicely, and she always smiles and nods and then just does whatever she wants anyway. I'm so over it but I don't know what to do next about it. Help!

Oh, butter bean! No one has time for that sort of nonsense in the best of times. And we just barely got through the NOT BEST of times. You should have no more fucks given about her terrible behavior. You're not Mr. Rogers! It's not your job to be the pacifist of the block. What I would do if get a baggie, pick up her dog's poop each time this happens, and then return that poop to HER from door. It's her dog and thus everything related to that dog belongs to her. And if that doesn't get her to stop... I always find "accidentally" hosing someone down when they get too close to my property to be a very effective deterrent. Tell her you were just hosing dog poop some stupid bitch didn't clean up when you accidentally hosed her in the mouth. Repeatedly.

DO YOU HAVE PROBLEMS? OF COURSE YOU DO! WHY NOT LET NANA HELP YOU?!

WHORE--SCOPES

AQUARIUS JAN 20 - FEB 18

Clearly in this Pride month, you aren't showing your pride in your weight!

PISCES FEB 19 - MAR 20

With all of this heat and humidity it seems you should consider showering more often, maybe weekly.

ARIES MAR 21 - APR 19

It's now OK to travel, so please do!!

TAURUS APR 20 - MAY 20

You're an amazing bottom, at least that's where you are on the IQ scale.

GEMINI MAY 21 - JUN 20

The city is asking that you avoid the pride fair this year. The street was just repaved and they don't want any craters on the new pavement.

CANCER JUN 21 - JUL 22

These longer days are not good for you. It's even more hours of daylight where people can see how hideous you are.

LEO JUL 23 - AUG 22

It's great that you conquered your fear and sang karaoke for the first time. Now 40 people need to conquer their fear of going to karaoke again.

VIRGO AUG 23 - SEP 22

Have you bought a mirror yet? Oh, nevermind, I have my answer.

LIBRA SEP 23 - OCT 22

That Louis Vouton bag you bought just might be a fake.

SCORPIO OCT 23 - NOV 21

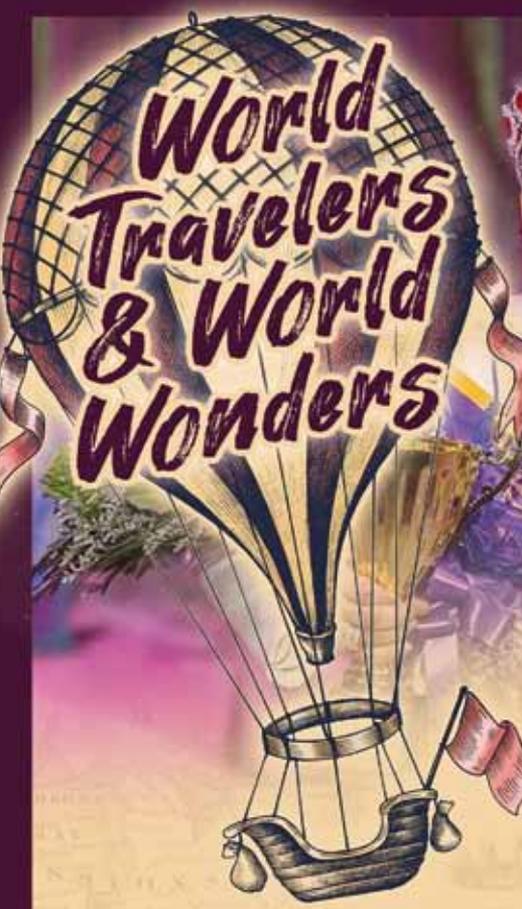

You watch too much porn. Now you have to go to court for having a pizza delivered.

SAGITTARIUS NOV 22 - DEC 21

When your Grindr date asks you to Venmo him, it's no longer a date, it's a transaction.

CAPRICORN DEC 22 - JAN 19

Go to a glow party. It's dark there. You look better in the dark.
