MAN ABOUT TOWN

I may get into a little trouble for this column, but in a world where political correctness is the norm, anyone that knows me, knows that I'm not normal.

Since this is Tropical Heat, I thought it would be great to talk about where men get together. If you're not sure what that means, go get your Monkeypox vaccine and keep reading.

In a world where men will go to a club full of men, all looking for the same thing, you'll see most on their phones looking at Grindr rather than just looking at the guy next to them. Well if you can get off your apps long enough, you may just get off.

So where to go? Well, that depends on what you're looking for. If you're not sure, a great option would be Island House. Make sure you ask for a tour, so you can get the "lay" of the land. Then, for $40, you have access to property and you can come and go until 8:00 AM the next morning. They have an amazing cafe that's open 24 hours a day in case you need to recharge while you're on property. Once on property, you'll have access to a locker where you can store your clothes. Towels are available. Did I mention that the entire property (except for the gym) is clothing optional? Wear whatever you're most comfortable with, or as little as you're most comfortable with. The amenities you'll find on property consist of, a large heated pool, 2 hot tubs (one outside and one inside), a steam room, a dry sauna and the infamous red room. While it's pretty easy to be, well, easy, it's also a very social environment. Go during happy hour and hang out with the guests. Island House is the most "versatile" property on the island. It can be a 5 star resort or a place to wet your willy, I mean whistle.

If you're more bargain conscious, check out the Garden Bar at Bourbon Street Pub. Head to the back of the bar and follow the hallway outside. This area is men only most nights, has a pool and a hot tub, a maze area out back, and the clothing optional sundeck is a great place to find a full "moon." Towels are available if you want to get wet! Open until 4AM every night.

Truman Adult Books & Video is often just referred to as "The Bookstore" but you won't be finding any David Sedaris books there. This adult store has magazines, DVDs, an assortment of toys and other naughty necessities. If you'd like to sample some of their movies, you can exchange a $5 bill for a token and head to the adult arcade. Back there are booths where you can sample the videos. Your likely to run into other like minded guys back there also looking to sample the videos.

There are a few other places as well, but I can't give away all of my secrets. You'll just need to sexplore the island and find all the best places to meet the menz!

LGBT Book Reviews by Terri Schlichenmeyer

"FIRE ISLAND: A CENTURY IN THE LIFE OF AN AMERICAN PARADISE"

BY JACK PARLETT

c.2022, Hanover Square Press | $27.99 | 272 pages

Two hours into Monday and your brain was already screaming for something fun, something far removed from work, a get-away that lets you play. You need to dance this weekend. You need to feel the sun on your face and sand between your toes. And you may need to bring "Fire Island" by Jack Parlett with you, too.

Geographically speaking, Manhattan and Fire Island are a mere sixty miles apart.

Sixty miles – and half a world. Stretched out and very narrow but walkable, the island is home to several vacation communities. Two of them, Cherry Grove and Fire Island Pines, both located in about the middle of the island, feature prominently in LGBTQ history.

Parlett says that Native Americans sold Fire Island to White Europeans for a pittance, after which activities there were shifty and possibly illegal. By the 1820s, conversely, it was a hot vacation spot for the elite; in certain places, it was the place for finding romance, too, which Parlett says was a sign of the future. Famous men like poet Walt Whitman were big fans of Fire Island and over the next century, a then-quiet queer subculture began to grow.

Sometimes, it grew with families and children in the picture, the latter raised by nonconformists and theater people.

Even so, despite these many changes, Parlett says that Fire Island wouldn't be what it is today, were it not for a hurricane that hit the island on the afternoon of September 21, 1938. It devastated Fire Island and resulted in a real-estate bust. Cottage prices fell significantly, and vacationing there suddenly became affordable for gay New Yorkers.

Throughout the twentieth century, Fire Island became a playground for performers, thinkers, and writers such as James Baldwin and W. H. Auden. It was a source of controversy for locals who objected to nude bathing. It was a source of embarrassment for Noel Coward. It allowed everyday gay men and women to dance, drink, and party freely.

And later on, it was a place to mourn...

Considering that this is a book about a getaway destination, "Fire Island" isn't much of a vacation-y read. It's actually pretty dry, in fact, and filled with people that were once very famous but aren't exactly household names anymore. Their drama and the love triangles they struggled with are mildly interesting, in the way that you might perceive great-grandma's old Confidential magazines in the attic.

And yet – the history. Author Jack Parlett offers a lot of solid information beyond those tired scandals to further show how Fire Island came to be a gay hot-spot and why that was important. These tales envelope the rest of the island, as well as current events in America, as a whole, and the impact those outside influences had on LGBTQ life, even today.

More scholarly than not, this book also includes a fair bit of memoir for readers who are looking for something less frivolous. If you want a book for fun, though, "Fire Island" is weak.

MY BIG GAY LIFE

Brad Loekle

STELLA'S NEW GROOVE

It was a long, dry Pandemic for my pussy. There's no other way to say it. Did lockdown, depression, grief, CVS almost poisoning me to death with a wrong medication, and general ennui lead to me not having sex for almost two years? Sure. But a larger part of it was that I live with a dear friend of mine who was very high risk for death from Covid until we knew the vaccines work as well as they do. And they do work. Sorry, DeathSantis. I did not want to risk catching covid, surviving it, but giving it to Eric in the meantime and killing him. I love him very much and he also pays 4/5s of the rent on our house and all of the bills. And I've grown very accustomed to living outside my means while still paying inside my means.

If I'm honest, I think Covid also coincided with a general mid-life malaise when it comes to sex. I had a lot of sex in my teens, 20s, and 30s. I mean A LOT. Like Middle-East-War-troop-deployment levels of dick. And, unless I really like the guy, I'll usually take good drinks with great friends to meh-sex with mediocre men. That's right, tops... I judge you all and I find many of you lacking, as I age.

But while I've been summering at The Woods Campground in PA, I found this tall glass of chocolate milk who kept putting in the effort to get into my pantaloons. Far be it from me to stop a man who knows the bad decision he wants to make! So, I decided to go home with this 6'5" younger man with ebony abs that cast a shadow when he has his shirt off. Again, much like my expensive house... I can't really afford a hot body myself but I am happy for the chance to borrow a friend's from time to time.

I knew he wanted to top me. And, though I was supremely skeptical having not bottomed in two trips around the Sun, I still wore my shirt that says, "Harder Daddy" when we met up at the club. Once we got back to my place, I went from fearing one thing to two. Not only was I worried about my ability to bottom after I saw the toddler's-arm-holding-an-apple that is his penis; I also realized he was more than a few years younger than me. As I straddled him naked, I said, "Wait... how old are you?" to which he replied, "We are well past the point of that being useful information, babe." I both laughed, got harder, and feared for my life. You see it wasn't just that he was younger and takes good care of his skin. His skin has that "new car smell". That touch and smell that lets you know very few people have ridden this vehicle.

I told him I didn't know if I could take him as my first top back in the game. He handed me the poppers and said, 'I don't know what to tell you but you better wrap your head around the idea that I'm going to be inside you tonight.' A man wise beyond his 25 years. Yeah, I said it! This Adonis is 25 years old. And not only that, he is a 7-time All-American NCAA Division II track star. Now I have no idea what a single one of those sportsing words means but it translates to: he fucked the cobwebs right out of my Grey Gardens. And, considering the fact he's still texting me while I travel, it would seem that Stella got her groove back!

Brad Loekle's latest comedy special & album, "Brash Boys Club" is available on Amazon, AppleTV, iTunes, and other platforms. He was a semi-finalist on NBC's "Last Comic Standing". He can be seen every week on TruTV's "World's Dumbest", has written for Joan Rivers on E! "Fashion Police" & tours internationally. His book, "My Big Gay Life" is available on Amazon. The HISTORY of Our BUSINESS GUILD

The Key West Business Guild (KWBG) was formed in 1978 to encourage summer tourism and to support Key West's gay community. The KWBG is one the nation's first LGBTQ destination marketing organizations. From a small original membership, it has grown to include more than 475 enterprises representing virtually every facet of the island's business community.

We are a not-for-profit organization devoted to promoting Key West to LGBTQ+ travelers. We provide comprehensive information about Gay Key West and promote our members to a national and international travel market. This work helps to attract about 250,000 LGBTQ+ travelers here each year, earning Key West the well-deserved (and decades long) reputation as one of the most appealing gay-friendly destinations anywhere in the world!

Our mission at the Key West Business Guild is to first, promote LGBTQ+ travel to Key West through marketing and the promotion of special events: Key West Pride, Tropical Heat, Womenfest, and the Headdress Ball. Secondly, we support LGBTQ+-owned, managed, or friendly businesses. And the Guild works to strengthen the LGBTQ+ community's position within the local community by supporting relevant LGBTQ+ issues.

Today, our Business Guild is proud to rank among the nation's leading gay business associations. Our marketing efforts, supported by the Monroe County Tourism Development Council, incorporate a gay marketing specialist and an award-winning advertising campaign. We also operate the Gay Key West Visitor Center located at 808 Duval. Walk-in to find a warm welcome and an informative introduction to this amazing inclusive island, our events, local businesses, and area attractions. We hope that you have an awesome time here in the island - and come back again soon!

Let me take the STRESS out of real estate
by putting my 27 years of proven results to work for YOU.

I know this market and can find YOUR perfect piece of paradise.

Whether cottage or castle,
we'll discover it together!

ASK NANA

E-mail your questions to nana@keywestgayrag.com

Dear Nana,

My boyfriend jumps out of bed the minute we both cum to run and take a shower. I would prefer if he stayed to cuddle and be in the moment more right after sex. But he has this thing about being sweaty and about body fluids in general. I get that it's a thing for him but it sort of makes me feel like he thinks our lovemaking is dirty or something. Do you think I should talk to him about it? Or am I over thinking things?

So, your pookie doesn't like to puddle cuddle, huh? Well, this isn't the first time I've heard this tale. Just like how some people love the smell of colognes or hate them and some people think body odor IS a cologne and other people hate them for it... this is the olfactory question for the ages.

I think there's room for a happy medium. And communication in relationships is the key to everything. Maybe if he knew you think he's treating you like Typhoid Mary when he hops off to hose down, he'd slow his roll a bit. Also, discussing it might help him open up about possible reasons he's like this. Is he a neat freak about everything? Is there an underlying reason why? Or is he just a naturally neat and tidy kind of guy and you're Pig Pen from "Peanuts"? Only one way to find out! Also, have you ever considered just fucking in the shower?

Dear Nana,

I sweat a lot in the heat and it sort of embarrasses me when my clothes are all damp and I look like I just came from the gym the minute I walk in a room. Do you have any tricks for cutting down on sweating in the dog days of summer? Thanks!

Well, first of all, I really hope you're not dating the guy from the first letter! He would hate you. This is a letter I can relate to. Before I went through "the change" and my lady bits dried up like a raisin in the sun, I used to sweat a lot. I tried all sorts of natural and unnatural remedies. Most that helped a bit were just products that blocked up your pores and shifted the sweat somewhere else. So, buyer beware. Sweat is a natural thing. And to sweat in heat is normal. You can always check with a dermatologist if you think you're having abnormal amounts of sweat. I mean, you shouldn't look like a melting candle all the time. But, in the end, you're in Florida in August. So, unless you plan on moving to Canada... sponge it up, buttercup!

DO YOU HAVE PROBLEMS? OF COURSE YOU DO! WHY NOT LET NANA HELP YOU?!
